

CONTENTS

List of Figures viii
List of Contributors x
Preface xi
Acknowledgments xii

Introduction Clio Padovani 1

The challenges of a socially sustainable textiles and fashion industry 2
Plustex: An evidence-based approach 3
Chapter structure 5
Notes 8

1 Museums and the knowledge economy: Developing competitive advantage for the future Clio Padovani 9

Museums and the manufacturing regions: Culture, tradition, and heritage 10
Museums as knowledge transfer hubs 19
Innovation hubs and museum leadership 25
Conclusion: Knowledge hubs, networks, and social sustainability 28
Interview with Eulalia Morral i Romeu, CDMT, Terrassa, Spain,
November 25, 2014 29
Interview with Filippo Guarini, Museo del Tessuto, Prato, Italy,
October 29, 2015 34
Notes 40

2 Weaving a social structure: Achieving specialist distinction Clio Padovani 43

Social responsibility as a driver of economic and social development 43
Rethinking authenticity as a commercial value through the narrative of a community's special labor 44

- Innovation, the narrative of making, and a shared understanding of value 51
- Product narrative and socially sustainable enterprise 58
- Conclusion: Authentic narrative, economic value, and an industry sensitive to social sustainability 61
- Interview with Jordi Purrà, manager, and Sofia Agerberth, export manager at Teixidors, Terrassa, Barcelona, November 25, 2014 62
- Notes 67

3 Collaborative leadership, provenance, and the power of place Clio Padovani 69

- Social sustainability: Importance of leadership, the value of the network, and mutual recognition of authentic experience 69
- Harris Tweed as a weaving cluster: The provenance, the history, and the product 71
- Planning a shared vision for Harris Tweed 77
- Collaboration and leadership as tools for the empowerment for socially and economically fragmented textile manufacturing communities 84
- The innovation gap or Valley of Death: The US and the European Union's challenges in translating knowledge base into marketable goods and services 86
- Conclusion: Value of the network and value for the community 87
- Notes 88

4 Enterprise and social value: Responsible innovation in the denim industry Paul Whittaker 91

- The drive for innovation and the value of the workforce 92
- Optimization and the duty of care 96
- The added value of innovation 102
- Conclusion: Creating shared value and societal benefits 106
- Interview with Vasco Pizarro, director of marketing, Pizarro, Guimaraes, Portugal, September 9, 2014 107
- Notes 112

5 Social enterprise, creative arts, and community development for marginal or migrant populations Paul Whittaker 115

- The knowledge exchange initiative and incubating start-ups 116
- Empowerment and the value of social capital 117

- Empowering niche communities: Fashion Enter 121
- Business-driven, policy-driven, skill set initiatives 125
- Smart specialization: How the creative sector can have a positive social impact 126
- Social enterprise, creative arts, and community development as knowledge ecologies 128
- Conclusion: Social bricolage 131
- Interview with Jenny Holloway, CEO, Fashion Enter, London, March 11, 2016 132
- Notes 138

6 Made in Italy: Reclaiming social heritage and artisan know-how Clio Padovani 141

- Community know-how: Futuro Artigiano 142
- Social heritage: Sarti 147
- Forging a uniquely valuable identity: The value of community know-how to business 155
- Conclusion 160
- Interview with Roberto and Monica Sarti, Faliero Sarti, Prato, Italy, April 4, 2014 161
- Notes 166

Conclusion Paul Whittaker 169

- Notes 171

Bibliography 172

Index 178