

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- Chapter 1 • Introduction, Kate Dimitrova and Margaret Goehrung, 7–10

PART I TEXTILES IN CONTEXT

- Chapter 2 • Pictorial Textiles and their Performance: The Star Mantle of Henry II, David Ganz, 13–29
- Chapter 3 • Orthodox Liturgical Textiles and Clerical Self-Referentiality, Warren T. Woodfin, 31–51
- Chapter 4 • The Epitaphioi of Stephen the Great, Henry Schilb, 53–63
- Chapter 5 • Liturgical Textiles as Papal Donations in Late Medieval Italy, Christiane Elster, 65–79
- Chapter 6 • *Monument in Linen: A Thirteenth-Century Embroidered Catafalque
Cover for the Members of the Beata Stirps of Saint Elizabeth of Hungary*, Stefanie Seeberg, 81–94
- Chapter 7 • Cultures Re-Shaped: Textiles from the Castilian Royal Tombs in Santa María de las Huelgas in Burgos, Kristin Böse, 95–105

PART II THE REPRESENTED TEXTILE AS SIGN

- Chapter 8 • ‘So lyvely in cullers and gilting’: *Vestments on Episcopal Tomb
Effigies in England*, Catherine Walden, 109–124
- Chapter 9 • *Material Evidence, Theological Requirements and Medial Transformation:
'Textile Strategies' in the Court Art of Charles IV*, Evelin Wetter, 125–140
- Chapter 10 • Weaving Legitimacy: The Jouvenel des Ursins Family and the Construction of Nobility in Fifteenth-Century France, Jennifer E. Courts, 141–152
- Chapter 11 • Textiles in the Great Mongol Shahnama: A New Approach to Ilkhanid Dress, Yuko Kadoi, 153–165
- Notes to the Text 167–213

